

RIIHAN203E

Conduct Lifting Operations

Introduction:

Bullivants is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO Number 46208) registered with the Australian Skills Quality Authority. Upon successful completion of the course, Bullivants will provide the learner with a Statement of Attainment for RIIHAN203E Conduct Lifting Operations.

Designed For:

The Conduct Lifting Operations course is designed for students required to undertake lifting tasks in all surface environments.

The course is designed to give instruction on safe lifting practices, practical application skills and pre and post inspection techniques.

Description:

This course gives both theory and practical instruction on Lifting Operations. It includes risk assessment, pre and post use inspection of equipment, job step planning (JSA/SWMS) and practical application of safe lifting practices as per Australian Standards, WorkSafe, OH&S and other statutory requirements.

Duration:

9 hours - max. 8 students.

Entry Requirements:

Learners must be 16 years or older and provide photo Identification is required to be sighted prior to course commencement.

Assessment:

Students will be assessed on practical activities and a written assessment.

Delivery Method:

This course is delivered at customer sites via PowerPoint presentations, audio-visual material, individual and group activities, and practical applications which simulate real working environments. Students are required to bring PPE including high visibility clothing (long sleeve shirt and pants), steel cap shoes, safety glasses and rigging gloves.

To book please contact us on:

1300 LIFTING

training@bullivants.com

Bullivants